

Company History

MAI

HARDWOOD DOORS

1981:
Raford Cade family starts MAI doors out of home office using storage garage for warehousing.

Mid 1980's – Mid 1990's:
The Cade family business continues to grow, including it's product offering. During this time MAI adds stair parts to their product offering. The door business model remains slab only sales, no pre-hanging is offered.

2003:
MAI begins offering beautiful Andean Walnut doors with natural wood characteristics.

2007:
Cade family sells MAI to Pella Corporation – an industry leader in windows and doors with over 80 years of company history. Pella maintains MAI's customers and invests in the business in the form of high-tech equipment and a re-engineered pre-finishing formula for enhanced performance.

VIEWED TO BE THE BEST®

2012:
Diamond Bevel glass offering is launched in Andean Walnut doors – adding a touch of elegance.

2014:
Launched Contemporary collection. A modern look coupled with MAI's tradition of quality.

1980's

1990's

2000's

2011

2012

2013

2014

2015

1986:
Cade family moves business into office and warehousing space in Garland, TX. Initial offering is primarily decorative shaped glass doors and a few all panel options.

2003:
MAI begins offering craftsman Home Towne collection.

1999:
MAI builds a new manufacturing and office facility in Wylie, TX. The expansion allows them to begin pre-hanging doors.

2003:
MAI adds warehousing space and a Pre-Finishing facility to its operations headquarters in Wylie, TX. The expansion has their new facility at 90,000 sq. ft.

2013:
Expanded existing TDL offering with additional lite patterns and door widths.

2015 & Beyond:
MAI will continue to offer high quality wood entry doors backed by a warranty that is unmatched in our industry. Our offering will continue to expand based on market needs.

